In Judging
a Bank

Always remember that it is Capital and Surplus that give security to the depositor. Capital and Surplus stand between the depositor and any possible loss of shrinkage in the securities held by the bank. The Capital and Surplus of this bank amount to $260,000.00, a margin of safety that assures absolute security for every dollar entrusted to us.

Dance for Bridal Couple.

One of the largest and happiest social events of the week was the dancing party at the Country club last night at which Misses Marjorie Dwyer and Alberta Smith, entertained the friends of Miss Julia Wootton and Mr. Harry Scott, whose wedding occurs June 14.

The ball room was prettily decorated with vases and baskets of garden flowers, arranged on pedestals and the piano, and the climax of decorative skill was reached in the arrangements of the mantle. A miniature bride and groom were here seated in a golden half moon. Quantities of fluffy marine draped around the moon gave the effect of clouds, and the remaining space on the mantle was draped with pink roses, making a lovely picture, indeed.

The guests were met at the door quite informally by the hostesses and hostesses.

Miss Wootton wore a striking gown of white taffeta trimmed in gold lace and looked most attractive. Miss Smith's dainty costume was of white net, and Miss Dwyer wore a pretty frock of sheerest organdie. Numerous other beautiful costumes were seen among the company of one hundred and twenty-five guests present.

The programs bore a wreath of gold and forget-me-nots, with the monogram "W. S." in the wreath. Miss Wootton and Mr. Scott led the grand march, and sixteen enjoyable dances followed.

A color design of blue and white was given artistic expression in the dainty refreshments served late in the evening. The cream was molded into blue wedding slippers and blue hearts bearing cupids, and the initials "W. S." in blue decorated white individual cakes. Cape jasmine blossoms were the favors on each plate.

Among the out of town guests enjoying this delightful dance were, Miss Catherine Barr of Norman, the guest of Miss Marjorie Dwyer; Misses Stella, Ella and Bernadine Campbell and Mr. Milton Campbell of Minco, the guests of Miss Alberta Smith; Messrs. Neal, Graham and Montford Johnson of Norman; the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson; Mr. John Stevens of Wichita, the guest of Mr. Burriel Bridges; Miss Marguerite Coleman of Norman, Mr. Jesse Fields of Norman, Mr. Hugh Hughes of Oklahoma City, the guest of Mr. Howard Hampton, and Mr. Sidney Scruggs of Oklahoma City.

Handkerchief Shower for Bride.

Prominent among the many delightful affairs of the week, planned for the especial pleasure of Miss Julia Wootton, an attractive bride of the month, was the handkerchief shower at which Mrs. H. T. Bettis was hostess Thursday afternoon.

The rooms were attractively brightened with garden flowers, and tallies, decorated with bridegrooms many, were distributed among the guests. The amusing game of blind bridge was played, and top scores were made by Misses Lucile Dashner and Francis Riddle. In a cut for the favor, Miss Dashner won a pretty pink gauze fan. A pair of silk hose were won by Miss Rosa Chastain in an all around cut and the hostess' gift to the bride was a pair of silk hose.

Late in the afternoon, the door bell announced Master William David Owsley, garbed as a messenger boy, who bore a package for Miss Wootton. On opening it, she found the many pretty handkerchiefs, presented to her by her friends.

The delicious refreshments were suggestive of the approaching event, the ice cream representing a wedding ring, and the cakes bearing the initial of the bride's maiden name. Mrs. Bettis was assisted during the afternoon by Miss Rebecca Armstrong. The company of guests included the Chin Chin girls and the members of the wedding party.

Club Meets in Evening.

The members of the Monday Bridge club and their husbands participated in a jolly picnic dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheegog Saturday evening. The delicious meal, supplied by the members, was served informally at the small tables, which were afterwards used for cards. High scores were made by Mrs. L. G. Wade and Mr. Bert Siddons and the exquisite favors were a silver bouillon dish and a key ring.

Guests of the club at this pleasant party were Mrs. M. E. Borum of Dallas and Mrs. E. U. McArthur of Lindsay.

Elaborate Geronimo Luncheon.

An elaborate pre-nuptial event given complimentary to Miss Julia Wootton was the two o'clock luncheon at which Mrs. Isaac Hehn was hostess at the Geronimo, Tuesday. Places for nine were arranged at a table of charming appointments. A large crystal bowl in its center held a mass of brides' roses and lilies of the valley, and the same flowers were generously sprayed over the cloth. In a corner of each place card was a wee photo of the bride and groom, making it a memento valued by each guest. The lovely luncheon was served in nine courses, and the floral decorations were later presented to the guests.

A line party at the Suggs was enjoyed. Mrs. Hehn also presenting each guest with a box of minis as she entered the theater. Enjoying this pleasant party were Misses Alberta Smith, Marjorie Cochran, Corinne Wootton, Marjorie Dwyer, Jenabel Baze, Vendia Eklund of Clayton, N. M., and Julia Wootton, and Mrs. B. P. Siddons.

Miss Jones Gives Shower.

Miss Regina Jones, 702 South 14th street, was the hostess Wednesday afternoon at an enjoyable party and miscellaneous shower for Miss Ruth Wadsworth, a popular Jane bride. June 7, the date of the wedding, was written on the faces of wooden dice, and played as the game of "Hearts" during the afternoon. On the tallies were written the wedding prophecies for each month. Miss Wadsworth received many beautiful and useful gifts, an appropriate verse being attached to each one. Dainty refreshments were served late in the afternoon.

The guests were Misses Gladys and Helen Kimbro, Neomie and Beuna Bowman, Alta Grigsby, Ruby Langston, Lois and Fern Gillie and Mrs. Albert Kennedy.

Kitchen Shower for Bride.

Pretty honor was paid Miss Ruth Wadsworth, who is to be married next week, at a kitchen shower at which Misses Gladys and Helen Kimbro were the hostesses. Miss Wadsworth was invited to a regular meeting of the Dites Out club and the shower was a complete surprise. A tin pan parade preceded the presentation of the many useful kitchen utensils. Only the members of the Dites Out club were present.

Picnic at North Bridge.

A gay crowd of young people, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ludlow, enjoyed a hay ride to the north bridge and later a picnic supper, Monday evening. Returning from the country the picnicers spent the remainder of the evening at the carnival. Included in the party were Misses Corinne Wootton, Dorothy Gorman, Joy Ringer, Marjorie Dwyer, Alberta Smith, Vendia Eklund, Grace Whatley, Edith Mosely, Lucile Dashner, Rebecca Armstrong, Edwina Hard, Susie King, Marjorie Cochran and Josephine Poole, and Messrs. Ed Gilkey, Jim Bradley, Looney Wallace, Gerald Gowdy, Ashley Hall Dugan, Clyde Turner, E. M. Slaughter, Clyde McCauley, Roy and Willis Ellledge, Ralph Conrad, Pelham Williams, Paul Heffer and A. Hawn.

Morning Club Meeting.

A pleasant meeting of the Forty-Two club was held Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. William Inman. The club game was enjoyed at three tables, guests other than club members being, Mrs. T. B. Trawick, Mrs. J. G. Mays and Mrs. Jacob Smith of Buffalo, N. Y. The hostess contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion by serving a lovely two course luncheon at the noon hour. Mrs. J. W. Kayser will be the hostess at the next meeting of the club.

Social Meeting for Mrs. Shultz.

Mrs. H. L. Shultz was the honored member at a social meeting of the Presbyterian Guild on Tuesday afternoon of this week. There was a large attendance and fancy needlework was the diversion of the afternoon. A lovely luncheon was served by the Guild ladies.

Mrs. Shultz and children left Thursday for Okmulgee where they will visit relatives, before going to their new home in Wichita.

1907 Bridge Club.

Mrs. Morgan Hamilton was hostess at a pleasant meeting of the 1907 Bridge club on Wednesday of this week. Guests playing substitute hands were Mesdames T. H. Williams, Lynum, Wills, Frey, Ad Melton and Trammel. Mrs. Will Melton of Oklahoma City, a club member, was also present. Delectable refreshments followed the usual number of games.
